Rubrics and Instructions

Resume

The Anderson School of Management accepts both Resumes and CV's. In either document, please highlight the following:

1. Years of full- or part-time work experience
2. Management experience. This could be managing teams, budgets, projects, or processes.
3. Awards, certificates, and honors earned
4. Community involvement, including volunteer, board, or student organization service

Personal Statement

Your personal statement should be approximately 500 words and addressed to the "Admissions Committee". In your personal statement, address the following areas:

1. Why you want to attend the program. Mention the program by name and specifics about the program that appeal to you, whether that is curriculum, faculty, or career outcomes.
2. Your professional goals. Share what you have done in your career or education so far and your future goals. Express how the program will help you achieve your career goals and any resources you are interested in utilizing, such as internships or networking opportunities.
3. Why you are a good candidate for the program. Share why the admission committee should consider you, such as your drive to complete the program, work or class performance, your current experience in the field, strengths, and any other reasons.
4. If your GPA is lower than 3.0, address this in your personal statement. Talk about what was going on at the time, how you have changed as a student, and your strategies for maintaining a 3.0 GPA in your graduate degree.
5. Add anything else you want to share about who you are! Help the admissions committee get to know you.

For assistance on your personal statement, you can use the UNM Center for Teaching and Learning.

Official Transcripts

If you graduated from the University of New Mexico, you do not need to send your official transcripts to the Anderson School of Management.

For non-UNM institutions, you are required to order official transcripts for any university or college that you have attended, even if you did not earn your degree from that institution. You can order your transcripts through the BusinessCAS application (preferred method) or online through the following services:

- Parchment
- National Student Clearinghouse

You can also visit your school's registrar's office to order from your school for online or mail. Online transcripts can be mailed to andersonapplication@unm.edu if done directly through your school. If you are unable to order online transcripts, you can mail your transcripts to:

The UNM Office of Admissions
 PO Box 4895
 Albuquerque, NM 87196-4895*

* If you choose to mail transcripts, please email andersonapplication@unm.edu to let us know that your transcripts will be coming in by mail to the UNM Office of Admissions. This will help us locate your transcripts.

Non-US (Foreign) Transcripts must include an official transcript evaluation

- o The basic evaluation alone is required to evaluate your GPA.
- o WES and ECE evaluations can be ordered directly through your online application with evaluations sent to BusinessCAS.
- o SpanTran and other NACES partners are also accepted evaluators. Request to be sent electronically to andersonapplication@unm.edu
- o If electronic delivery is not available, send foreign evaluations to UNM Anderson Graduate Admissions, MSC05 3090, 1 University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, NM 87131-0001.
