MBA for Professionals

FACULTY PERSPECTIVE

“ The business world is incredibly dynamic. Our faculty bring innovation into our classes, while building a strong foundation of business principles in our students. Teaching in our MBA Program not only asks for the best from our students, but also inspires students to ask the best from us. ”

Reilly White, Ph.D.
Assistant Dean
of Teaching and Learning

SPECIALIZED TRACKS

Health Care

The Health Care track is designed to help health care practitioners gain the business background to successfully navigate small business ownership or move into administrative and leadership roles in health care organizations or clinical settings.

Education

Coursework in the Education track is designed to provide students with the learning needed to apply for K-12 licensure with the New Mexico Public Education Department and opportunities in corporate training and development or leadership roles such as Chief Learning Officer.

General Management

The General Management coursework is ideal for students interested in pursuing additional skills and expertise in finance, marketing, analytics, management of technology, human resources, policy and corporate social responsibility.
